

Figure S1. Top 15 core journals by Bradford's Law.

Figure S2. Relationship analysis of authors, keywords, and countries. The size of the rectangles represents the number of publications, while the connecting lines depict the correlation between academic forces, with more links indicating a higher number of studies.

